

Michael E. Leister

Bio

Mike Leister has a MS in Chemical Engineering and an MBA from Virginia Tech. He has worked for Marathon Oil, Marathon Ashland Petroleum, and now Marathon Petroleum Company for 33 years. Mike has been involved in Refinery modeling, computer automation and process control and supply and maintenance systems. Mike is currently MPC's Senior Fuels Policy Advisor. He has been an IT manager, an Operations Planning Manager, and most recently was the Manager of Fuels Technology for MPC. Mike just completed working on the latest National Petroleum Council study of Future Transportation Fuels. Mike is currently a member of the board of the Coordinating Research Council. He chairs the American Petroleum Institute Fuels Subcommittee, is a member of the API Economics work group, and belongs to the American Fuels & Petrochemical Manufacturers Fuels Advisory Subcommittee.